DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1 and 4-9 allowed.
2. Claim 35 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 24-34 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rim
(2005/0082531)

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Regarding Claims 24-34, Rim discloses a double silicon-on-insulator metal oxide semiconductor field effect transistor structures where in Fig. 1, it is disclosed a first device region 16 having a first crystallographic orientation defined by layer 34 and a second device region 18 having a second crystallographic region defined by layer 14 where the first crystallographic region is different from the second crystallographic region, an isolation region 30 separating first device from the second device, at least a first semiconductor device 21 is located in first device and at least a second semiconductor device 20 is located in second device where first and second semiconductor devices are both bulk-like devices and both devices contain a well region that serves as a body contact.

Regarding Claims 26 and 28, at least one semiconductor device is a pFET or an nFET and at least one second semiconductor device is an nFET or a pFET as disclosed in paragraph 41

Regarding Claims 25, 27, first semiconductor layer has (100) or (110) crystal orientation and the first crystallographic orientation is (100) or (110) and second semiconductor layer has (110) or (100) crystal orientation and the second crystallographic orientation is (110) or (100) as disclosed in paragraph 41.

Regarding Claims 29-34, Rim discloses that first and second semiconductor layers maybe a homogeneous material or a heterogeneous structure of at least two elements stacked on top of each other hence regrown and that first and second semiconductor layers maybe strained, relaxed, unstrained or a combination of strained and relaxed as disclosed in paragraphs 37-40.
